V. POLICY

It is the policy of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (ODRC) to provide a system for offenders under Adult Parole Authority (APA) supervision to file a grievance and/or appeal certain decisions. All offenders shall be informed of the grievance and appeal procedures at the initial interview.

VI. PROCEDURES

Any offender under the jurisdiction of the APA may file a grievance if, or when, they believe their rights have been or are about to be violated by administrative actions, supervision practices, treatment, other services, or lack of other services.

A. Forms

Adult Parole Authority Grievance Procedures (DRC3218) and Grievance form (DRC3219) shall be available in each district office. Grievance forms shall be given to the offender upon request.

B. Staff Assistance

A senior officer or unit supervisor who is not involved in the matter being grieved may assist the offender, upon request, to explain the form and review the grievance.

C. Grievance Instructions

At the time of the initial interview, all offenders shall be informed that during ~~the course of~~ supervision they may advise their supervising officer or the unit supervisor/designee of any possible problems including any grievances they might have. It shall also be explained to the offender that there is a grievance procedure, the details of the procedure, and that a copy of the grievance form is available in the office. The offender shall acknowledge understanding of this procedure by signing the Adult Parole Authority Grievance Procedures (DRC3218). This form shall be placed in the offender's case file.

D. What Is Grievable

Grievances may involve any aspect of community supervision which affects a grievant personally, including:

1. Sanctions given by the parole officer, senior officer or supervisor.
2. Complaints regarding failure on the part of the APA to follow policies, procedures, and/or administrative rules and regulations.
3. Complaints regarding the actions of an employee (s) that have resulted in direct or indirect injury to the offender.
4. Payment of supervision fee when the offender presents documentation of an ongoing permanent injury or condition. See ODRC Policy 100-APA-06, Financial Obligation of Offenders.
5. A parole final release or PRC reduction recommendation that was not submitted at the earliest applicable date.

E. What Is Not Grievable

1. Parole Board ordered special conditions and/or sanctions, parole final release and/or PRC reduction decisions.
2. Court ordered special conditions and/or sanctions.
3. Arrest for investigation of alleged violation behaviors.
4. Failure to follow the directions/instructions of APA staff.
5. Final decisions of previous grievances.
6. Complaints unrelated to supervision (e.g., prison complaints, legislative action, judicial proceedings and sentencing).
7. Any subject matter exclusively within the jurisdiction of the courts or other agencies (e.g., Human Services).

F. Offender Responsibilities

Within thirty (30) calendar days, the offender should first attempt to solve the complaint or problem at the unit level through a meeting with the supervising officer or unit supervisor. If the meeting does not resolve the matter, the following steps are to be followed by the offender, within seven (7) business days:

1. Complete the Grievance form (DRC3219).
2. Be factual and truthful.
3. Explain the complaint/problem (only one complaint per form). If the grievance is regarding the payment of the supervision fee, documentation of financial difficulty should be provided (e.g., medical letter, child support statement, etc.).
4. Sign the grievance; anonymous grievances shall not be processed.
5. Send the completed form to the regional administrator.

G. Regional Administrator Responsibilities

1. The regional administrator/designee shall review, conduct an inquiry if necessary, and respond to the grievance within fifteen (15) business days of receipt. If the complaint is beyond the authority of the regional administrator, it shall be forwarded to the superintendent of the APA. The offender shall be notified that the grievance has been referred.
2. Emergency cases or life-threatening grievances shall be responded to immediately by the regional administrator/designee. If resolution or investigation shall exceed fifteen (15) business days, the offender shall be provided a notice of a fifteen (15) day extension. Responses to complaints shall be timely, accurate and complete.

3. Grievances regarding the collection of the supervision fee shall be investigated if the offender provides documentation that the fee shall unjustly limit the offender's ability to provide for him/herself per ODRC Policy 100-APA-06, Financial Obligation of Offenders.

H. Appeal

1. The offender may appeal the disposition provided by the regional administrator within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt. The offender may forward the appeal to the APA superintendent. The APA superintendent/designee shall respond within twenty (20) business days of receipt of the appeal with a final or a notice of a twenty (20) day extension. A copy shall be maintained.
2. Grievances received by the APA superintendent from offenders without evidence of the regional administrator's action shall be returned to the regional administrator. Mitigation for failure to appeal a grievance within the designated time frames shall be reviewed on a case by case basis.

I. Possible Actions

1. The filing of a grievance shall not, by itself, be used as grounds to initiate disciplinary action against an employee. The regional administrator may initiate an investigation if a grievance filed by an offender alleges staff knowingly, maliciously, or deliberately attempted to cause injury or caused injury.
2. The use of the grievance procedure shall not result in formal or informal reprisal against an offender.

J. Documentation

The APA shall establish a tracking and recording system for the grievance procedure that the regional administrator/designee shall enter the following:

1. The date the grievance was received;
2. The name of the grievant;
3. The nature of the grievance;
4. The reply or action taken;
5. The date of the reply or action.

K. Evaluation

The chief of the APA/designee shall conduct an evaluation of the grievance procedure at least annually to determine its efficiency and effectiveness. The quantity and nature of grievances shall be aggregated and analyzed annually.
